Intro

- 1. Johanna drove slowly into the city, the Hudson River all filled with snow.
- 1. She spied the ring on His Honor's finger, oh-oh-oh.
- 2. His Honor drove southward, seeking exotica, down to the pueblo huts of New Mexico.
- Cut his teeth on turquoise harmonicas, Oh-oh-oh.

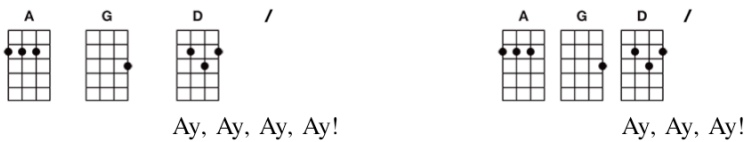

- 1. A thousand years in one piece of silver, She took it from his lily-white hand.
- 1. Showed no fear - she'd seen the thing, in the Young Men's wing at Sloan-Kettering.
- 2. I saw Johanna down in the subway She took an apartment in Washington Heights.
- 2. Half of the ring lies here with me, but the other half's at the bottom of the sea.

Instrumental

(chorus) Look outside at the raincoats coming, say "Oh." Look outside at the raincoats coming, say "Oh."
