Be Mine, Be Mine, Be Mine, Mine, All the time

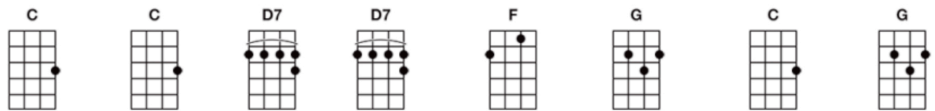

From time, To time, All your joy starts breaking, your heart will be aching some times.

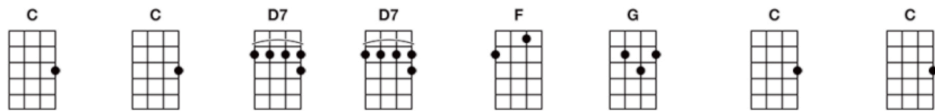

But when you're mine, You will find, No matter how much shakin' the Earth keeps making, No matter if I'm near or far

You will always be my own, Be mine

Be Mine, Be Mine, Be Mine, Mine, All the time.
(no matter what the future brings) (the sun won't shine on everything)

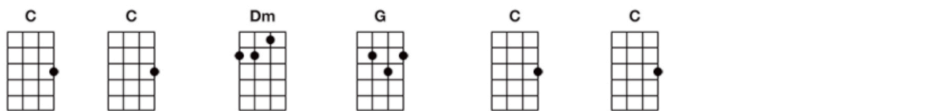

From time, To time, All your joy starts breaking, your heart will be aching some times.
(we don't know what the future brings) (you may not always want to sing)

But when you're mine. You will find. No matter how much shakin' the Earth keeps making. No matter if I'm near or far.

You will always be my own, Be mine

You will always be my own, Be mine
