

Leaning on a Lampost

Artist: George Formby | Genre: Acoustic

I'm leaning on a lamp, maybe you think I look a tramp, Or you may think I'm hanging 'round to steal a car.

But no, I'm not a crook, And if you think that's what I look, I'll tell you why I'm here And what my motives are.

(Double Time!) I'm leaning on a lamppost at the corner of the street, In case a certain little lady comes by

Oh me, oh my, I hope the little lady comes by.

I don't know if she'll get away, She doesn't always get away, But anyway I know that she'll try.

Oh me, oh my, I hope the little lady comes by.

There's no other girl I could wait for, But this one I'd break any date for,

I won't have to ask what she's late for; She wouldn't leave me flat, she's not a girl like that,

She's absolutely wonderful And marvelous and beautiful, And anyone can understand why

I'm leaning on a lamppost at the corner of the street, In case a certain little lady comes by.

George Formby was a master of fancy strumming. But if you live in Great Britain, you already know that. And if you live near this chart, you'll know Ukulele Bartt. Hey, that rhymes!

You can get free video lessons at his website, Bartt.net, or buy Bartt's "Ultimate Ukulele" instructional DVD! Know what else you can get? Videos, CDs, Message Boards, Links Galore, everything ukulele, and U'Bartt CDs. Did I mention that you can buy DVDs? You can. Yep, you can.
