If I counted all of the love songs I've written about you, including this one, it's six hundred and eighty-two.

Now that may seem like a lot, but it's not all that I can do, 'cause I'm still in love with you. (go to Verse 2)

If I wanted to sing all the things that you mean to me, I'd have to keep on going to six hundred and eighty-three.

But that wouldn't be enough, because I love you so much more, and I ain't stopping at six hundred & eighty-four

One, two, three and four, I wanna love you a little more! Five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, I wanna love you all over again!

If I tried to sing all the things that you mean to me, I'd have to keep on going to six hundred and eighty-three

But that still wouldn't do, 'cause I love you so much more, and I ain't stopping at six hundred and eighty-four
